

2019 Southwest Association of Freshwater
Invertebrate Taxonomists (SAFIT) Taxonomic Workshop.

19-20 October, 2019

University of California-Davis, Briggs Hall, Room 122

Aquatic Hemiptera/Heteroptera, the true bugs
with Dan Polhemus, Bishop Museum

SAFIT will hold the 2019 taxonomic workshop at Briggs Hall, UC Davis on the weekend of October 19-20, prior to the SAFIT annual board meeting on October 21 at the Yolo Bypass Wildlife Area near Davis, and the 26th annual California Aquatic Bioassessment Workgroup (CABW) meetings at the ARC on the UC Davis campus on October 22-23. The workshop this year will focus on the aquatic Hemiptera/Heteroptera and will be presented by Dan Polhemus, the Bishop Museum, Hawaii. There will also be a section on taxonomic updates. Folks are encouraged to volunteer to provide updates on other taxonomic groups. Please contact Robert Wisseman bob@aquaticbio.com with your ideas or questions.

Cost to Attend: SAFIT Members: $300
Non-members: $400

You must be an active member of SAFIT for 2019 at the time of registration to register for the workshop at the reduced fee

Payment may be sent to the SAFIT treasurer:

Bill Isham, C/O Wood E&I,

9210 Sky Park Court, San Diego CA, 92123

Please make checks/money orders payable to "SAFIT" in US dollars.

We have room for 40 participants in this workshop and these seats will be filled on a first come first serve basis. We will accept participants up to the day of the workshop or until all seats are filled. If you have any questions about this workshop, please contact John Pfeiffer at jpfeiffer@ecoanalysts.com

Current students may apply to Dan Pickard, the SAFIT president dpickard@csuchico.edu for a scholarship to have the workshop fee waived.

Students and staff from UC-Davis may attend all or part of the workshop for free, but please notify Bob Wisseman bob@aquaticbio.com that you will be doing so to make sure we have enough room.
